

ACCOYA® CLADDING (NON FR TREATED)

Timber species: “Accoya wood”, (acetylated Pinus radiata).

Accoya wood is manufactured by Accsys PLC, Brettenham House, 19 Lancaster Place, London WC2E 7EN

Accoya cladding is manufactured and distributed through; International Timber, James Latham, Russwood, Vincent Timber, Arnold Laver and other quality timber merchants.

Durability: Class 1. Very durable

Equilibrium moisture content: max 10%

Appearance class: “Grade A1” as defined Accsys PLC, Accoya Radiata Pine Lumber Grading Specifications, Version 9.0

Fixings: Stainless steel, A2 or A4 grade (A4 grade required for coastal sites).

Cladding section: 15mm x 145mm shiplap (alter as appropriate).
Note that with Accoya it is possible to go as thin as 15mm for T&G or shiplap profiles

Coating: translucent, colour to be decided. To be applied to the manufacturer’s recommended dry film thickness. End grain sealer to be applied to all exposed end grain. (alter as appropriate).

For further guidance refer to the Accoya wood information guide, available here or contact Accsys PLC via www.accoya.com